

How to upload photos into Flickr: Step by step!

Futurescape City Tours 2012

1. Creating a flickr™ account

If you already have a flickr account, proceed to Sign In. Otherwise, go to <http://www.flickr.com> and click on Sign Up on the upper right of the screen.

You may sign in with your Yahoo, Gmail or Facebook account.

2. Start uploading your pictures!

The screenshot shows the Flickr website interface for a user named 'Jambo futurescape2012!'. The page features a navigation bar with links for Home, You, Organize & Create, Contacts, Groups, Explore, and Upload. A search bar is also present. The main content area includes a 'Here's how to get started:' section with three numbered steps: 1. Personalize your profile, 2. Upload your first photos, and 3. Find your friends on Flickr. The second step is highlighted with a yellow oval. A red arrow points from the word 'Click' to the 'Upload Photos & Video' link, which is also circled in yellow. Below the 'Your Photostream' section, there is a message: 'You haven't uploaded any photos yet. Why not upload your first photo now?'. The 'Your Contacts' section includes a message: 'Flickr is more fun when your friends use it too! Get started by finding your friends on Facebook, Yahoo! Mail, Gmail, or Windows Live.' The 'Flickr Blog' section features a post titled 'Flickr T-Shirts are now available!' with a small image of a person wearing a red t-shirt.

Flickr T-Shirts are now available!
Over the last couple of weeks we have been working hard to bring you something very special just in time for the holiday season. In collaboration...

Drag & Drop your photos into the screen OR click here to select your files from your computer.

Select ALL your photos you want to upload.

3. Add captions & tags to EACH photo!

a) Select the photo.

b) Click on 'Add a description' and enter the caption.

c) Click on Tags and add the tag: 'futurescape12', click ENTER. Add second tag: 'past', 'present' OR 'future'.

d) Repeat a) for each picture and click on Upload Photos when you're done.

4. Add photos to the GROUP

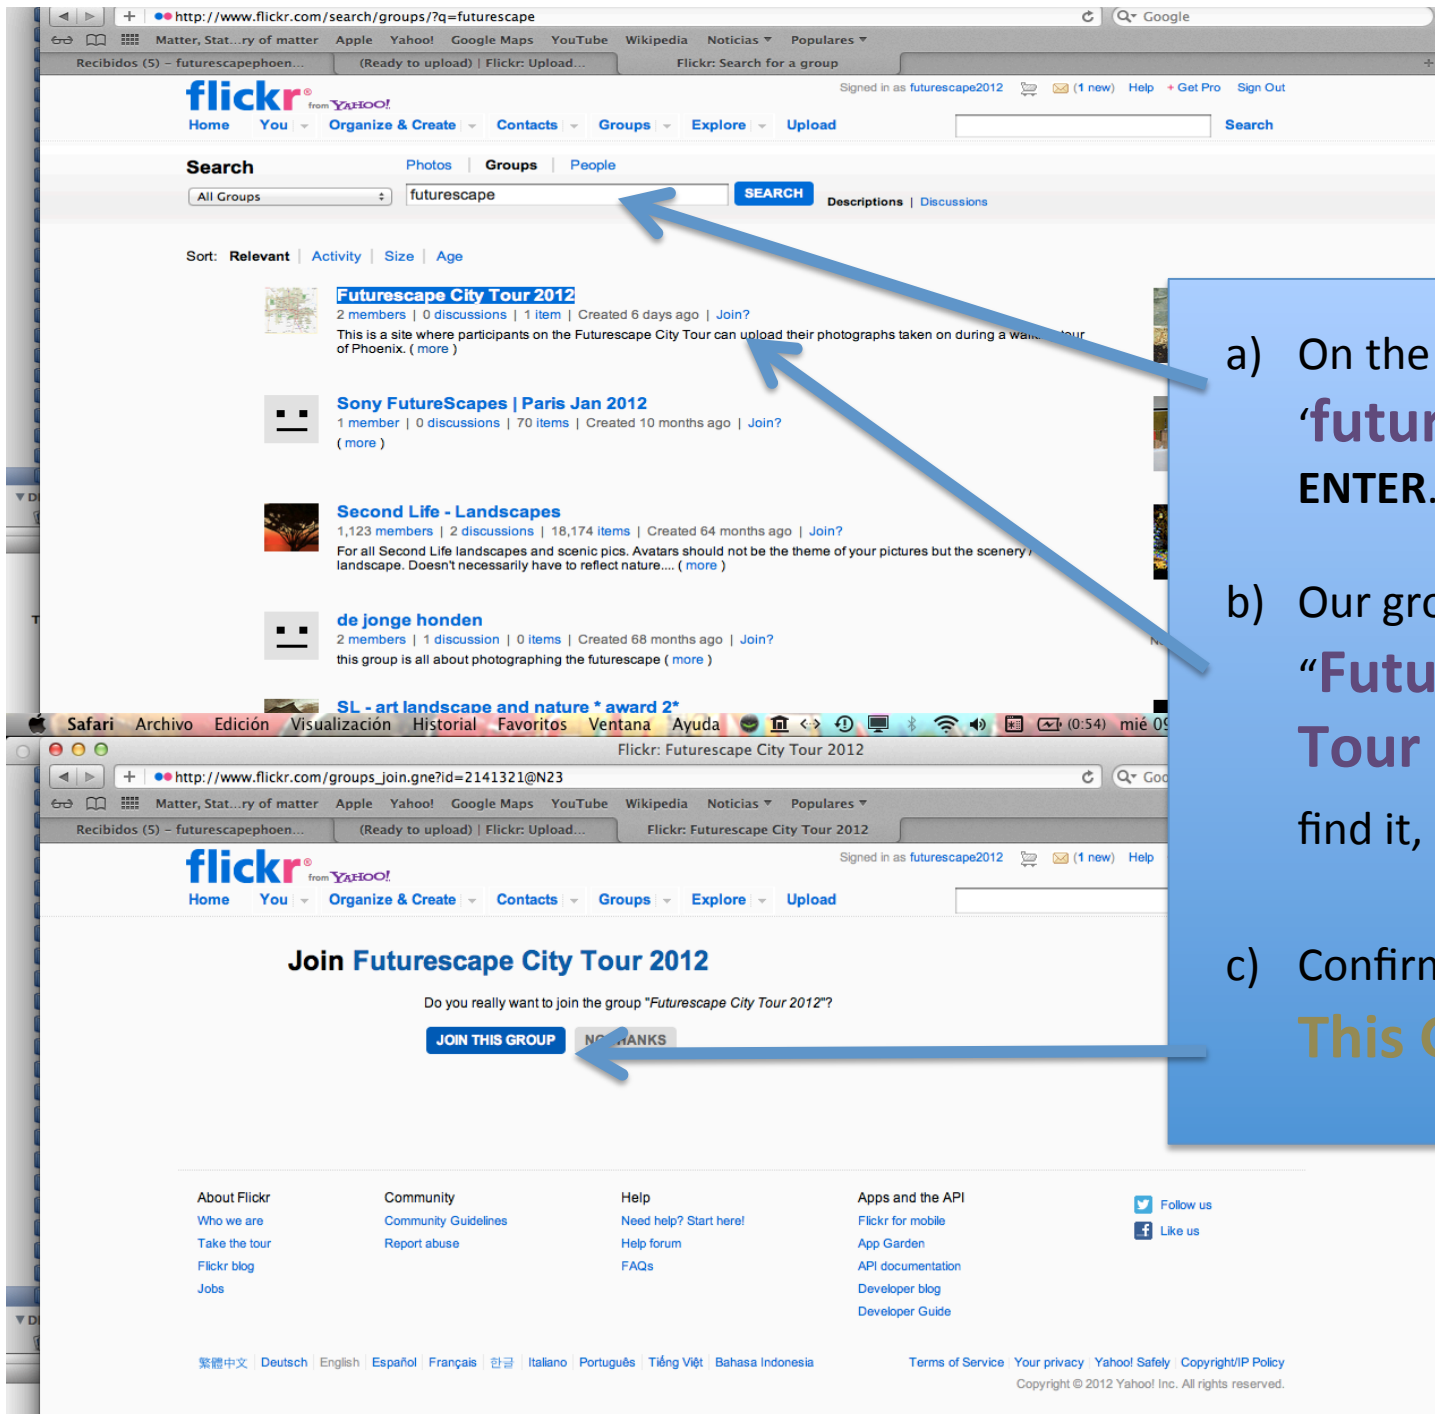

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying a Flickr photostream. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.flickr.com/photos/90571674@N02/>. The page header includes the Flickr logo, navigation links (Home, You, Organize & Create, Contacts, Groups, Explore, Upload), and a search bar. A yellow callout box highlights the 'Groups' menu, which is open to show options: 'Your Groups', 'Recent Changes', 'Search for a Group', and 'Create a New Group'. A yellow arrow points from the 'Search for a Group' option to a larger yellow callout box on the right. The main content area shows two photos: 'DSC_0171' (a modern building) and 'DSC_0057' (a yellow vintage car). The bottom of the page features a footer with a subscription link.

Once you upload all your photos, they will appear on the screen.

Now, we will add them to our group by clicking on 'Groups' in the top menu.

Select 'Search for a Group'

a) On the search tab write 'futurescape' and then ENTER.

b) Our group is "Futurescape City Tour 2012." Once you find it, click 'Join?'

c) Confirm by clicking in 'Join This Group'

Click on Add photo.

Flickr allows you to add 6 photos at a time, so select 6 pics, click on ADD TO GROUP and repeat this step until you have them all in the group.

If you see this, you are done!!
